Four People Killed Outright and Fifty Persons Injured.

Special to the APPEAL

A Fiendish Murder

San Francisco, Nov. 17—A bloody and brutal murder occurred on Montgomery Avenue this morning. "Big Belle" Sullivan was stabbed and killed by Pat Sullivan, who went under the title of the woman's husband. The woman was coming from a restaurant with a companion named Kittie Ennis, when they were met by Sullivan, with whom the murdered woman had not lived for some time. Sullivan grabbed the woman, and pulling out a huge sheath knife began to plunge it into her rapidly. The first blow inflicted a gash in the left side of the scalp three inches long, and the second made another about half an inch lower. The Ennis woman screamed for assistance and the other dragged her burly assailant along the pavement in an effort to get away. Sullivan inflicted ten gaping wounds in the body, one nearly severing the left arm from the shoulder. The shouting attracted the attention of Manuel Silva, and he ran to the woman's aid. Sullivan attacked him but with the assistance of a police officer he was manacled and dragged to the city prison, while the woman was removed to the hospital, where she soon died. Sullivan was taken to the Morgue to view the body and exclaimed, with an oath: "I'm glad she's dead. I got the knife on purpose from a whaler to kill her."

A Terrible Tornado.

Red Bud, Ill., Nov. 19—The entire town, with the exception of two houses, was destroyed by a tornado today. Three women and a boy were killed outright and 50 people injured. Property valued at $200,000 was destroyed, and hundreds of people are left homeless and suffering with cold. Every church and public building was destroyed. Most of the injured were women.

Hilborn Carries Alameda.

Oakland, Nov. 17—The official count of Alameda was completed at noon today. Alameda gives Hilborn, the Republican candidate for Congress, a plurality of 1198, electing him by a plurality of 24 in the District.

Bad Bookkeeping.

Chicago, Nov. 17—This city has lost hundreds of thousands of dollars through the gross irregularities in the water department. It has been demonstrated by the examination of the books, now being made by the expert accountants, Holbrook and his assistants.

Fox vs. Hale & Norcross.

San Francisco Nov. 17—A bond of $2,000,000 has been given by the defendants in the suit of Fox vs. the Hale & Norcross Mining Company, on which the Western Guarantee Company is surety, has been accepted by Deputy County Clerk Williams.

A Howling Blizzard.

San Francisco, Nov. 17—A severe blizzard is raging in the East and the telegraph wires have been prostrated, cutting short the usual supply of domestic and foreign news.

The pinenut crop this year was enormous.

To Clara Morriss.

The great emotional actress, Clara Morriss, who is to play Claire here tonight, so impressed John G. Wilson the poet on one occasion when she played Alixe some years ago, at the California in San Francisco, that he wrote a little tribute to her powers. The manuscript is in the possession of the APPEAL editor, and has never been published.

We print it below just as it was written by Mr. Wilson, whose poetry is all born in the bottom of his heart:

Fresh as the winds of morn upon the sea,
Fair as the first red rose of joyous June,
Pure as a white cloud blown across the moon
When Summer nights glow soft on hill and lea—
How shall I fitly yield my praise to thee?
For thine the subtle charm no rhyme or rune
Can shadow forth, nor music set to tune:
Lo, thou beyond all reach of art dost flee:
With silver chime of happy, girlish mirth,
With lambent virgin eyes that open up
To Love, as violets to the Winter sun—
And O, when comes the cruel curse of earth
Thy firm young lips, drain dry the bitter cup—
Yes, blood of martyrs in thy veins doth run.

A Chinese Burial.

A Chinese funeral passed up Main street yesterday with a tract distributor mounted on the hearse and an irregular assortment of gongbeaters lingering up in the rear. Two of them were smoking cigarettes and blowing the smoke in the direction of the hearse.

Directly behind the remains was a buckboard loaded with rice, baked pig and pickled fish to place upon the grave, that the soul in taking its unearthly flight might dine on the brink of the grave before attempting to jump across the chasm of hell.

Thirteen buck Indians and nine squaws were seen making a break for the graveyard somewhat in advance of the procession, and if the soul of the departed mongolian don't operate its chopsticks with both hands, Mr. Indian will see that it don't get a smell.

These Chinese funerals are great things for the Indians, and the death list is watched very closely by them.

Will be Brought Back.

Sheriff Fellows received word yesterday that Frank W. Freeman, the young fellow who swindled several Winnemuccans out of bogus drafts, had been arrested at Elko. The officers there telegraphed that Freeman offered to refund the amounts the drafts called for. The Sheriff replied that if the prisoner paid back the money and costs of catching him those whom he defrauded would not prosecute him. Freeman refused to pay the costs and Deputy Sheriff Nofsinger left for Elko this morning to bring him back to answer to a charge of obtaining money under false pretense.—Silver State.

The people whom he bilked in Carson might be interested in the above.

A Novel Invention.

A Grass Valley, Cal., school teacher has introduced a decidedly original method of improving her scholars in the art of spelling. Whenever a girl in the class misspells a word, the boy that spells it correct has the privilege of kissing the girl. The innovation is only partially successful, however, for while the boys in the class have grown proficient enough to spell any word in the dictionary without a miss, the girls get stuck on any word containing more than three letters.

Elko Assemblymen.

The assemblymen-elect from Elko county are W. A. Massey, R. P. Hamill and George Russell. The two former are silver party men and the latter a Democrat, but all are pledged to W. M. Stewart. Hamill has represented Elko in the assembly before and achieved quite a reputation as the author of the "anti-treat" passed by the legislature several years ago.

At a Democratic ratification meeting in Arkansas yesterday, a quantity of powder exploded, killing 5 persons and injuring 15.

General Rosecrans is dangerously ill in Washington.

ALL SORTS.

Judge Bigelow is back from the bay.

A jury has been secured in the Curtis trial at San Francisco.

Congressman Bartine is again on the street after his long illness.

Henry Villard seems to be ahead in the race for the German Ministry.

The Call claims that Scott, non-partisan candidate for Sheriff of San Francisco, was fraudulently counted out.

Don't forget to take in the Briggs' dance tonight. If you want to see Clara Morriss why come around afterwards.

People desiring Thanksgiving turkeys, dressed, will please leave their orders at Tennant's store at an early date.

Tim Dempsey's coon is showing a wonderful growth and great strength. A dog attempted to monkey with him the other day and almost got his right eye scratched out.

If Marret Mather continues to be chattered marriage, some other fellow is likely to spar for her hand and thus cause Mr. Pabst to burst a beer bottle over his head.

The Workmen's dance to be given at the Armory on the 23d, is to be the center of delegations from the outside lodges and will be a good place to meet a friend. If you don't care to go yourself buy a ticket and give it away to someone else.

The State officers are busy preparing their annual reports which will soon be in the hands of the State Printer. The Board of Equalization report will be much sought after and will be very complete. An effort will be made this year to get all the reports out before the Legislature adjourns.

The things come to us that Chief Justice Stephen J. Field has concluded to retire from the Supreme Bench because he dislikes Grover Cleveland. If Mr. Cleveland is the cause of this legal luminary leaving the bench, he will have been something of a benefactor to the people of the Pacific Coast.

The California Turf a new sporting paper published in San Francisco reached us this morning. It is one of the best printed and neatest papers published on the coast. With Edward A. Morphy as manager and Charles E. Frevathan as editor it certainly has every advantage a young paper could expect.

The police officers of San Francisco have gotten themselves into trouble by arresting a subject of the Czar and chaining him up for safe keeping. He threatens to drag his nation into a bloody war and commence operations on San Francisco first of all. No one fears, however, that the bear will monkey with the eagle.

Does Not Represent It.

The Guarantee Mercantile and Collection Agency of San Francisco wired the APPEAL last night that Mr. A. C. Gault, who has advertised himself here of such, does not represent that company.

Clothing and Furnishing Goods.

John Henderson, representing Wanamaker & Brown of Philadelphia the largest clothing and merchant tailoring house in America will be at the Arlington Nov. 27 and 28, and every two weeks thereafter with a line of Fall and Winter goods. Don't miss this opportunity of getting your clothing for one-half the usual price. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed.

Commercial Lunch.

There will be served during the Summer a regular commercial lunch at Anderson's lunch counter in Weiland's saloon. It will be a hot lunch with soup, beer, tea, coffee or milk, for 25 cents. It is proposed to make this the best lunch in the city for the money, and will run from 12 to 2 o'clock. July 1

A. Livingston now practically controls the wholesale liquor trade of the city. He is continually adding to his stock and sells only standard brands. He is also introducing some excellent California wines to the people of Carson, as well as foreign and domestic cigars of the finest quality. Drop in and inspect his stock. d 13 ff

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.
